Araneae Sloveniae: a national spider species checklist

Description: The research of the spider fauna of Slovenia dates back to the very beginning of binomial nomenclature, but the species records have never been summarized in a single work. In this contribution Rok Kostanjšek and Matjaž Kuntner fill the void in cataloguing central and southern European spider faunas by providing a critical review of published spider records in Slovenia.

The new national checklist currently comprises 738 spider species, and will be regularly updated online. This comprehensive volume will also facilitate more detailed regional araneological research and may help guide conservation decisions.
