Running Apparel and Footwear Market in the US 2015-2019

Description: About Running Apparel and Footwear
Growing awareness of health and fitness worldwide has increased the popularity of running as it is considered one of the best activities to enhance physical fitness. Marathons are also increasingly popular, with participation not restricted to athletes alone. The running apparel and footwear market caters to the demand generated by participation in running related events. Active consumers focus on purchasing technologically advanced apparel manufactured from lightweight and breathable fabrics. They also show a high inclination toward products with a casual and fashionable appearance. As a result, leading sports equipment manufacturers have begun developing running apparel and footwear that are stylish as well as functional.

The analysts forecast the running apparel and footwear market in the US to grow at a CAGR of 5.92% in terms of revenue over the period 2014-2019.
