Clothing and Footwear Retailing in Turkey- Market Summary and Forecasts; Comprehensive overview of the market, consumer, and competitive context, with retail sales value and forecasts to 2019

Description:

Summary
Clothing and footwear are two major product sectors in Turkey accounting for 14.4% of the total retail sales in 2014. A rise in disposable incomes, increasing use of credit cards, and changing preferences towards branded products are major factors driving the growth for Turkey's clothing retail sector. A strong affinity to shop for apparel and footwear among Turkish consumers will drive per capita spending to grow at a CAGR of 6.6% over the next five years. Rising health consciousness and new innovations, especially in the sportswear segment, are expected to drive future sales in the footwear market in Turkey.

Key Findings
- Clothing, footwear, accessories, and luxury goods specialists command the major share, accounting for 72.3% of total sales in the clothing sector followed by department stores.
- A wider choice of products, convenience, and the increasing penetration of smartphones is driving the sales of clothing and footwear through the online channel.
- Improving living standards and a demand for high quality textiles is providing new growth dimensions to retailers
- Footwear sales are expected to growing at a CAGR of 7.5% during 2014-2019
