Food and Grocery Retailing in Turkey - Market Summary and Forecasts; Comprehensive overview of the market, consumer, and competitive context, with retail sales value and forecasts to 2019

Description:

Summary
Food and grocery is by far the largest product sector in Turkey in terms of share of total retail sales. This sector is expected to witness a robust CAGR of 4.4% over the forecast period to reach TRY256.7 billion by 2019. Turkish consumers still prefer the local shops called the bakkals over the modern retail formats, but these modern retail stores are fast gaining prominence. Rapid pace of urbanization, increasing disposable incomes and improving living standards is set to drive the demand for high quality food and grocery products thereby auguring well for the market.

Key Findings
- Food and grocery is expected to grow at a CAGR of 4.4%
- Supermarkets and big discounters making inroads into market share of local stores that enjoy customer loyalty.
- Improving living standards and burgeoning youth population is resulting in new consumption trends thereby increasing the per head expenditure on food and grocery.
- Drinks segment is expected to be the most promising market during the forecast period, with a CAGR of 6.7% over the next five years.
