Abstract
Standard & Poor's Ratings Services assigned its 'A+' underlying rating and 'AAA' enhanced program rating to Cameron Independent School District (ISD), Texas’ series 2015 unlimited tax refunding bonds. At the same time, Standard & Poor's affirmed its 'A+' underlying rating on the district's existing general obligation (GO) debt. The outlook is stable. The program rating reflects our assessment of the district's eligibility for, and participation in, the Texas Permanent School Fund bond guarantee program. (For more information on the program rating, please see the article published July 7, 2015, on RatingsDirect.) The program provides the security of a permanent fund of assets that could be used to meet debt service on program guaranteed bonds. The 'A+' underlying rating reflects our...

Standard & Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor's issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
