Summary: Kuwait Energy plc Oct 15

Description: Abstract
Small scale and relatively high customer and geographic concentration. Limited production track record in its key growth market of Iraq. Greatly increased reserves, resulting in high reserve life index compared with peers. Weakening credit metrics owing to pressure on operations from the industry downturn. High-risk countries of operation, with potential unexpected operational setbacks and subsequent swings in credit metrics. Comfortable cash position, which mitigates risk to the financial risk profile, although substantial investments lie ahead. Standard & Poor's Ratings Services' stable outlook on oil and gas exploration and production company Kuwait Energy PLC reflects our view that the company will continue to develop its oil production and reserves. In particular, the production started from the Block 9 field in October...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer’s creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor’s issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
