Summary: Health Care REIT Inc. May 09

Description:
Abstract
Our ratings on Health Care REIT Inc. (HCN) are supported by the company's solid financial profile, notably strong debt protection measures, and a good quality portfolio that will nonetheless experience some pressure as a result of difficult market conditions. We believe private-pay facility occupancy and rents will likely continue to come under pressure due to the weak economy and housing market. However, there is cushion to allow for some compression of presently good portfolio rent coverage without meaningfully jeopardizing contractual rents. HCN has a sizeable development pipeline with additional funding needs, but manageable debt maturities. Toledo, Ohio-based HCN owns or finances a portfolio of 632 health care real estate assets in 39 states. Health care assets are generally considered to...
