Clothing and Footwear Retailing in Australia- Market Summary and Forecasts: Comprehensive overview of the market, consumer, and competitive context, with retail sales value and forecasts to 2019

Description:

Summary
Clothing and footwear are among the major product sectors in Australia accounting for 10.5% of the total retail sales in 2014. A rise in disposable income and changing preferences towards branded products are major factors driving the growth for Australia's clothing retail sector. A strong affinity to shop for apparel among Australian consumers will drive per capita spending to grow at a CAGR of 2.5% over the next five years.

Key Findings
- A wider choice of products, convenience, and the increasing penetration of smartphones is driving the sales of clothing and footwear through the online channel.
- Clothing, footwear, accessories, and luxury goods specialists command the major share, accounting for 52.7% of total sales in the clothing sector followed by department stores.
- Improving living standards and a demand for high quality textiles is providing new growth dimensions to retailers
- Footwear sales are expected to grow at a modest CAGR of 1.7% during 2014-2019
