Books, News and Stationery Retailing in Australia - Market Summary and Forecasts: Comprehensive overview of the market, consumer, and competitive context, with retail sales value and forecasts to 2019

Description:

Books, News and Stationery products market in Australia has been witnessing steady growth over the past few years. The local book industry in Australia has been protected by the parallel import restrictions (PIR) which provides protection for the publication of books and prevents book sellers from sourcing world titles at cheaper prices. Similarly to many other countries, book stores across Australia are closing down due to decreasing sales through physical stores. Sales from online stores are witnessing significant growth due to a wider product choice.

Key Findings
- Books, news and stationery segment is projected to witness steady growth over the next few years and account for 1.4% of the total retail market by 2019.
- Online retail channel to post healthy growth in the forecast period
- Advent of digital technology, increasing internet penetration, and increasing adoption of mobile devices is projected to pose a challenge to physical sales of books, news and stationery products.
