Books, News and Stationery Retailing in Spain - Market Summary and Forecasts ; Comprehensive overview of the market, consumer, and competitive context, with retail sales value and forecasts to 2019

Description:

Summary
The consumption of stationery products is negatively affected by the constant young population. Spending per head on books, news, and stationery will decline at a CAGR of -0.5% in the next five years. In a tough economy, spending money on books and news is considered an additional expenditure by consumers and they refrain from such purchases. Conversely most of the consumers prefer e-books instead of physical books, and the sales of e-books are expected to surpass physical books.

Key Findings
- Books, news and stationery segment is projected to witness steady growth over the next few years and account for 1.7% of the total retail market by 2019.
- Online retail channel to post healthy growth in the forecast period
- Advent of digital technology, increasing internet penetration, and increasing adoption of mobile devices is projected to pose a challenge to physical sales of books, news and stationery products.
