Russia & CIS - Cinema Industry

Description:
In 2012 Russian box office reached $1.24 billion, with the country's cinema market having passed through the financial crisis virtually unscathed. With admissions forecast to hit 227 million by 2017, Russia remains one of the world's fastest-growing cinema markets.

This detailed report offers comprehensive data relating to the market and the main players in it, together with five year forecasts of key metrics, supporting business planning for exhibitors, distributors, equipment and other suppliers, and investors in the industry. As well as Russia itself it also covers the smaller market of Ukraine.
