Global Home Audio Equipment Market 2015-2019

Description:
Market outlook of the global home audio equipment market
Home audio equipment generally includes audio devices like home theaters, soundbars, Blu-ray and DVD players, Hi-Fi systems, and speakers that are used for entertainment purpose. The global market for home audio equipment is expected to show strong growth during the forecast period and is envisaged to post a healthy CAGR of more than 10% during the forecast period.

The market research analyst has estimated eminent factors, such as the wireless streaming of audio content, to drive market growth during the forecast period. Most audio systems are now equipped with wireless support such as Bluetooth and can wirelessly connect to portable devices like MP3 players, smartphones, tablets, and laptops. The ability of these devices to easily stream audio content wirelessly is expected to bolster the prospects for growth in this market during the forecast period.

Product-based segmentation of the home audio equipment market
- Home theaters
- Soundbars
- Blu-ray and DVD players

In terms of unit shipment, market research analysts have estimated the Blu-ray and DVD players segment to account for more than 55% of the total market share by 2019. Since this segment consists of conventional products, its high awareness in both developed and developing countries is expected to impel growth in this segment during the forecast period.

Geographical segmentation of the home audio equipment market
- APAC
- Americas
- EMEA

Geographically, APAC is estimated to be the only region to show strong growth during the forecast period. This region currently accounts for a mere 20% of the total market share, but factors like the increase in disposable income of the populace in APAC are expected to boost its market share in the next four years.
