Summary: Koninklijke Ahold N.V. Jan 16

Description:

Abstract
Strong market positions in The Netherlands and on the U.S. East Coast. Good profitability underpinned by above-average operating efficiency. Small but growing presence in emerging market operations. Business risk could improve for the combined group, if the merger with Delhaize Group S.A., is executed well. Robust cash flow generation and credit ratios support an intermediate financial risk profile. Strong liquidity. Financial policy commitment to investment-grade credit rating after the Delhaize merger. Standard & Poor’s Ratings Services’ outlook on Netherlands-based food retailer Koninklijke Ahold N.V. (Ahold) is stable. Despite high market competition, in our view, Ahold should continue to generate low positive growth in revenue, at constant exchange rates. We anticipate that the combined group will be able to continue to...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer’s creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor’s issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
