Global Industrial Valves Market - Segmented By Type, Application and by Geography - Trends and Forecasts (2015-2020)

Description: Global Industrial Valves Market is forecasted to grow at a CAGR of 5.2%, to reach $95 billion during the forecast period. Growing industrialization in India, China and Brazil are the major factors driving market demand. Steady flow of resources in infrastructure and power generation in Asia-Pacific region is another reason for market growth.

The global market is expected to expand further as a result of growth in drilling activity and expansion of oil and gas industries in Middle East. Growth in manufacturing industry in the developed countries will also lead to more consumption of industrial valves.

China is currently the world's largest exporter of industrial valves. The country occupies top position in production and is expected to expand with a healthy growth rate. Japan, South Korea and Germany are other major players. Power and Infrastructure are the key segments accounting for 40% of the market share. Refining is forecasted to be a growing segment in this market with a CAGR of 5.9%. Demand for automatic valves is also expected to increase with growth in process manufacturing.

In order to introduce effective technologies, investment in research and development is the most sought after strategy adopted by major participants. Some of the major players are Cameron International, Emerson Electric Co., Flowserve Corp., Pentair Ltd., Alfa Laval AB etc.

Specialities of The Report

1) The report will be useful in gaining an exhaustive understanding of the regional market. It will also be of assistance in providing a comprehensive analysis of the major trends, innovations and associated prospects for market growth over the coming half a decade.

2) The report will be an ideal source material for industry consultants, manufacturers and other interested and allied parties to gain a critical insight into the factors driving and restraining the market, in addition to opportunities offered.

3) The report contains wide range of information about the leading market players and the major strategies adopted by them.

What The Report Offers
