Cross-Border Mergers and Acquisitions. Wiley Finance

Description:

Praise for Cross-Border Mergers and Acquisitions

"Cross-border M&A is the new norm in a flat world. This book provides the nuts and bolts view of what it takes to be successful in this endeavor. The practical experience of the authors comes through in the book and that is very useful for anybody venturing into bringing together two companies from different geographies."
Srikantan Moorthy, Executive Vice President, Infosys

"Mergers and acquisitions is an inevitable choice for Chinese companies going global. The methodology and experience shared from this book provides an excellent reference for them."
Pi Shui, President and Editor-in-Chief, China Times

"A comprehensive overview of cross-border M&A touching on strategic rationale, deal process, and key focus areas for integration that not only provides tangible examples from prior deals, but also practical tools for application."
Don Yakulis, Vice President, Corporate Development Operations and Integration, Visa

"This book provides clear guidance on cross-border M&A. The combined knowledge from these practitioners sets the international standard for deal execution. It is a must-read for any executive leading global business expansion, whether in developed or emerging markets."
Dr. Charles Wang, General Manager and Global Head of M&A, Yili Group

"Cross-Border Mergers and Acquisitions gives the reader all the tools required to help prepare an organization to address the complexity and inherent risk associated with M&A transactions."
Eran Katz, SVP, Chief Business Processes Officer, Teva Pharmaceutical Industries

"Thought provoking and comprehensive. A well-balanced practitioner’s guide about one of the most up-to-date business topics these days. Clearly a must-read for the international business leader."
Thomas Kipp, CEO, DHL eCommerce, Deutsche Post DHL
