Cinema Industry Research - France & Benelux

Description: Containing some of the most innovative and best-run exhibitors in Europe, the France and Benelux region remains a dynamic hotspot in Europe's exhibition landscape. Most recently consolidation has emerged as a major theme, with Belgium's Kinepolis acquiring the regional exhibitor Utopia and a number of single cinemas, and Pathé making acquisitions in the Netherlands and, for the first time, Belgium. With Vue also present in the market, more developments are almost certainly in the pipeline.

As well as describing the most recent developments, this report brings together market and financial data from around the region, and includes profiles of the key companies active in it.
