Global Sports Footwear Market 2016-2020

Description: About the Sports Footwear Market

The global market for sports footwear has been divided into six product segments: cleats, running footwear, court game shoes, gym and training shoes, athleisure, and other segments that include hiking, walking, aerobics, golf, and cricket shoes. The athleisure segment is gaining prominence over all other product segments, accounting for the largest portion of the overall sales revenue and a dominant share of the market.

The global sports footwear market is expected to grow at a dynamic rate compared to the global footwear market during the forecast period as a slight shift in consumer preferences toward casual sports footwear has been noted, which most consumers prefer for daily use. The growing affinity of consumers toward sports and fitness activities, along with a greater adoption of different sports, will contribute to the growth of the global sports footwear market in the coming years.

The analysts forecast the global sports footwear market to grow at a CAGR of 2.55% during the period 2016-2020.
