Mobile Money Market by Transaction Mode, Nature of Payment, Location, Type of Purchase, Industry & Region - Global Forecast to 2021

Description: Mobile Money Market by Transaction Mode (NFC/Smartcard, SMS, Mobile Apps), Nature of Payment (Person to Person, Person to Business, Business to Person, and Business to Business), Location, Type of Purchase, Industry & Region - Global Forecast to 2021

The mobile money market size is estimated to grow from USD 21.15 billion in 2016 to USD 112.29 billion by 2021, at an estimated Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 39.64% from 2016 to 2021. Technological advancement in mobile devices, indispensable requirement to have ubiquitous access to financial solutions, rising use of non-cash payments, creation of new business avenues for stakeholders, evolving demographic needs across regions, rising use of mobile money services across businesses are some of the driving forces in the mobile money market.

Person to person segment, under nature of payments, is expected to account for the largest market share during the forecast period 2016-2021 as this payment service provided by banks offers customers with heightened convenience of immediate withdraws and deposits and facilitate instant money transfers through any mobile device and Mobile Network Operator (MNO).

By location, remote payments segment dominates the mobile money market and contributes the largest market share. The reason being this type of payment usually makes use of premium SMS, mobile web/WAP, STK/USSD, browser, and mobile applications and can be processed over a subscriber’s mobile phone bill, prepaid payments, and debit or credit card payments. These payments are beneficial for consumers as they can be conducted through any type of mobile phone, ranging from a basic handset to smartphones.
