2016 China Luxury Travel Consumer Report

Description: This Chinese market report is based on findings from the Affluent Insights Luxury Travel Survey which was fielded online in China in April/May 2016.

We interviewed 300 respondents, all of the respondents were defined as affluent with minimum annual household income:

- 50% of respondents make more than CNY 350,000 and 10% make more than CNY 1 Million
- All respondents have travelled internationally for leisure or business in the past 12 months.

- We can expect Chinese source travel to continue growing. While there is a small downward tick in optimism for the coming 12 months, 4 in 5 Chinese travellers think they are likely to travel more next year than they did last year.

- You need to meet travelers expectations of luxury. The new Chinese traveller is increasingly seeking luxury in the way they travel - 7 in 10 Affluent Chinese plan to travel more luxuriously and spend more on luxury items.
