In FY'2015, hotel furniture accounted for a share of ~% in the overall sales of furniture in the country garnering revenues worth INR ~ billion.

India Home Furniture Market:

The retail sales of home furniture products through organized retail outlets in India generated revenues of INR ~million in FY'2015 and represented a CAGR of ~% during the period, FY'2010-FY'2015. Bedroom furniture accounted for the largest share in home furniture market in India. The living room furniture was the second most important choice as it garnered ~% share in revenues for the year FY'2015. This segment encompasses a wide range of coffee tables, sofas, center tables, corner tables, chairs, bookshelves, TV stands and others. Dining Furniture accounted for ~% in the home furniture market in FY'2015. Leading furniture makers have focused on keeping simple and sleek designs of chairs and tables. The kitchen segment contributed a share of ~% in the overall home furniture market in FY'2015.

The demand of furniture products in the organized home furniture industry of India have been observed to majorly generate from the western and southern India. The Indian market for home furniture products has observed a varied/mixed demand from different income classes. The higher income class has contributed ~% to the revenues in the organized home furniture market. In terms of age bracket, the age group of 25 – 35 years has been considered as the prime target group by furniture retailers in India. On the basis of cities, most of the demand of home furniture products from the organized companies has originated from tier-1 cities. By distribution channels, the sale of home furniture products through exclusive showrooms was observed to contribute highest to the revenues.

Imports have formed a significant portion of the products sold to the upper-middle income class and higher income class of the Indian society. India was observed as the largest importer of furniture in the world and accounted for ~% of global furniture imports, with beds been imported the highest in the country. In terms of import destination, China has been discussed as leading import for furniture products in India for almost every product category. The organized furniture market has been guided by several major players such as Damro, Home Town, Home centre, Godrej Interio and others. The onset of online furniture retailers has provided customers with an opportunity to view a large array of furniture products anywhere and anytime. This has heightened competition amongst local carpenters/dealers, offline branded players and furniture e-commerce companies. It has been estimated that the home furniture market in India will expand from INR ~ million in FY'2016 to INR ~ million in FY'2020 at a CAGR of ~%.
