
Description:
Economic slowdown in some of the biggest economies in Latin America has affected Paper Packaging market adversely. Government policies and urbanization are some of the factors which will contribute to the market growth which will witness thin growth over the forecast period. Brazil and Mexico are the major market for paper packaging solutions in the region.

Paper is one the most used material for packaging products. The demand for paper packaging will continue to witness growth over the forecast period.

With focus now shifting towards eco-friendly and sustainability, paper packaging is expected to gain traction with many countries pushing for paper packaging products over plastic packaging, which poses significant threat to environment. Higher recycling demand will push the use of paper as packaging material further, with consumers and businesses looking for solutions which helps in cost reduction as well as helps in keeping environment safe, while keeping government regulations intact.

Some of the major companies mentioned in the report are:
