Journal of Advanced Materials

Description: Journal of Advanced Materials is a bimonthly cover-to-cover translation of Perspektivnye Materialy, published in Russian by the Baikov Institute of Metallurgy and Materials Science, Russian Academy of Sciences, Moscow. The journal publishes the latest research results in the following areas: Principles of development of materials for new key technologies; Materials for aerospace technology; Materials for electronics; Materials for atomic and nuclear power engineering; Constructional and functional materials for ensuring human life activity; General purpose structural materials; Materials for quantum electronics; New materials processing technologies; Methods of measurements and metrological issues relating to new materials; Environmental problems of materials science

A bimonthly scientific journal covering the following topics:

- Principles of development of materials for new key technologies
- Materials for aerospace technology
- Materials for electronics
- Materials for atomic and nuclear power engineering
- Constructional and functional materials for ensuring human life activity
- General purpose constructional
- Materials (including those for large-scale products)
- Materials for quantum electronics n new materials processing technologies
- Methods of measurements and metrological issues related to new materials
- Environmental problems of materials science

*Six issues per year

Contents:

*Sample Table of Contents

Examination and application of nanostructured alloys produced by highintensity plastic deformation
V.V. Stolyarov and R.Z. Valiev

Physical-chemical principles of the development of the current-carrying structure of Bi2Sr2CaCu2O8–x in single and multistrand conductors

The nature of variation of the electrical conductivity of sensor layers based on tin dioxide
V.I. Kukuev, E.S. Rembeza and M.Kh. Dzhadhua

Effect of radiation defects and their complexes on the optical absorption of polycrystalline aluminium oxide
A.V. Kabyshev and F.V. Konusov

Modification of the optical properties of nanoporous glasses by the method of supercritical impregnation

Growth of refractory dielectric single crystals by vertical directional crystallisation
Kh.S. Bagdasarov and L.A. Goryainov

Effect of technological stages on the physicalchemical and biocompatible properties of intraocular lenses made of leucosapphire
Examination of ultrafine electrically conducting carbon materials

The structure and properties of an antifriction material, produced by pressing powder of nickel-plated graphite
V.N. Arisova and A.F. Trudov

Cermets and electron beam coatings of the titanium carbide–binder system from highchromium cast iron
G.A. Pribytkov, I.V. Polev and V.G. Durakov

Ultrasound technology of production of structural and functional nanoceramics
O.L. Khasanov, V.M. Sokolov, E.S. Dvilis and Yu.P. Pokholkov

Synthesis of fullerene-containing phases in an iron–cast iron powder composition
V.N. Antsiferov and L.M. Grevnov

Kinetic special features of sintering in the CaO–MgO system
A.V. Gropyanov and V.M. Gropyanov

Atomic structure of ion-implanted alloys with a long-range order
N.N. Syutkin
