Business Process Management (BPM) in Real Estate Market by Component (Solutions and Services), Deployment Type (On-Premises and Cloud), Region (North America, Europe, Asia-Pacific, and Middle East & Africa) - Global Forecast to 2021

Description: “Increasing adoption and need to improve efficiency of business operations is driving the global BPM in real estate market”

The business process management (BPM) in real estate market is projected to grow from USD 429.1 million in 2016 to USD 1,298.0 million by 2021, at a CAGR of 24.8% between 2016 and 2021. The market for BPM in real estate is growing substantially owing to the increasing adoption of BPM solutions by real estate companies. Increasing demand to improve efficiency of business operations is one of the most significant drivers influencing the growth of the BPM in real estate market. High investments in deployment of BPM suites is acting as a restraint for the growth of the BPM in real estate market.

“Based on component, the services segment of the BPM in real estate market is projected to grow at the highest CAGR during the forecast period”

Based on component, the services segment of the BPM in real estate market is estimated to grow at the highest CAGR during the forecast period. This high growth of the services segment can be attributed to the increasing demand and expansive use of system integration, consulting, and training & education services in the real estate market to improve efficiency of deployed solutions.

“The Asia-Pacific BPM in real estate market is projected to grow at the highest CAGR during the forecast period”

The Asia-Pacific BPM in real estate market is expected to witness substantial growth and is projected to grow at the highest CAGR during the forecast period. This is due to the increasing demand for BPM solutions and services in real estate in the region. Industrialization and urbanization are the major factors fueling the growth of the real estate sector in the Asia-Pacific region, which, in turn, is fueling the growth of the BPM in real estate market in the region. The real estate sector of the region is increasingly deploying BPM solutions to streamline various business processes and enhance their efficiency.
