Global Dehumidifier Market By Type, By End Use, Competition Forecast & Opportunities, 2011-2021

Description:
Clean air, both indoors and outdoors, is essential for good health. People across the globe are becoming aware about the negative impacts of bad indoor air quality on their health, and opting for dehumidifiers, an electronic appliance which reduces the level of humidity in the air and eliminate musty odor. Another major factor driving the sales of dehumidifiers across the globe is increasing instances of respiratory diseases caused by various pollutants present in the air.

Due to mounting exposure to airborne pollutants and irritants with each breath, the number of individuals suffering from airborne diseases has surged over the years. Hence, owing to rising health concerns, consumers across the world are spending heavily on lifestyle products, including dehumidifiers. Some of the other major factors aiding the global dehumidifier market are rapid urbanization, increasing purchasing power, expanding urban population base and depleting air quality. Additionally, changing weather conditions and growing consumer awareness are anticipated to positively influence the global dehumidifier market during forecast period.

According to “Global Dehumidifier Market By Type, By End Use, Competition Forecast & Opportunities, 2011-2021”, the global dehumidifier market is anticipated to grow at a CAGR of over 6% during 2016 - 2021. Desiccant dehumidifier segment dominated the global dehumidifier market in 2015, and the segment is anticipated to maintain its dominance over the next five years as well.

Desiccant dehumidifiers are mostly used in industrial and commercial places like construction sites, food storage facilities, etc., where the requirement to operate at a low temperature is mandatory. Moreover, these dehumidifiers are cost-effective and efficient as they can reduce the humidity level of the surroundings to the level below 35%. During the forecast period, Asia-Pacific region is forecast to dominate global dehumidifier market.
