Uzbekistan Energy Report

Description: This report provides updated facts and figures on the evolution of the national energy market. For the oil, gas, coal and power markets, the report details the market organisation, institutions regulating the market, and energy policy of the country. Energy companies active on the market are analysed. Domestic production, capacities, exchanges, consumption by sector and market shares are provided. Energy prices levels and taxes are described. Finally, the driving issues, and the market prospects are proposed.

Executive Summary

HIGHLIGHTS IN UZBEKISTAN

Uzbekistan is one of the main producer of gas in the region. Investments are currently made to enhance the capacity of gas export pipelines towards Russia and China. Gazprom plans to invest more than $400m in gas exploration activities in the country.

Among other developing countries, the Commonwealth of Independent States experienced a substantial cut in its primary production and trade surplus. Respectively due to a slowdown in economic activity consumptions shrank by 8, 5%.

WHAT YOU WILL FIND IN THIS REPORT

The Uzbekistan energy market report is a reliable source for understanding the key issues and dynamics shaping the Uzbekistani energy industry. With timely, up-to-date energy industry data and demand forecasts, this report will help you identify and exploit challenges and opportunities in the Uzbekistani energy sector. The report details the sub-sectors of the energy industry (Crude Oil, refined oil products, Natural Gas, Coal, Electricity and Renewable) in Uzbekistan.

In this report you will find:

- Overview of energy industry sub-segments: oil, gas, coal, power, renewable
- Recent energy and climate change policy development, and an assessment of its impact
- Key companies active in the Uzbekistani energy industry, along the value chain of each sub-segment
- Up-to-date insight on market structures, regulatory developments, and asset developments
- Market dynamics and trends, detailed by energy and by sector
- Historical data and trends relating to production, consumption, imports, exports and reserves for each industry sub-segment
- Projects under development in the country, including power plants, refineries, LNG terminals, gas pipelines
- Key drivers of change and future issues for each energy type

MAIN REASONS TO BUY THIS REPORT

- Identify key companies activities and strategy in the Uzbekistani market
- Work with data-driven market research
- Follow market dynamics and future industry trends
