Medical Practice and Legal Aspects (Pratica Medica e Aspetti Legali)

Description:  ‘Practical Medical and Legal Aspects’ is published quarterly. The aim of the journal is to describe and discuss all the legal aspects related to clinical practice.

Plenty of space is dedicated to the analysis of malpractice litigation, selected to supply an adequate level of information to the clinicians who take an interest in the implications legacies to their profession.

‘Practical Medical and Legal Aspects’ also contains articles that describe the risks of medical error and the methods for their prevention, intense activities on the management of the clinical risk and cases that highlight the possible risks related to drugs prescription and administration.
