Healthcare Quarterly

Description: Healthcare Quarterly recognizes, nurtures and champions excellence in the Canadian healthcare system. Its objective is to document and disseminate leading practices in health service delivery and policy development.

Excellence is achieved through constant innovation, motivated people and inspired leadership at all levels of the organization. Healthcare Quarterly helps Canadian health system managers anticipate and respond to changing environments, demands and mandates.

The journal is a dependable source of best practices that are:

- Practical: Offering information and advice that is useful in day-to-day operations.
- Eclectic: Offering materials for a wide readership within the healthcare community.
- Representative: Reflecting the dynamics inherent in an evolving healthcare system.
- Bridging: Exploring experiences from other sectors.
- International: Reporting experiences from around the world.
- Interactive: Allowing direct reader feedback.
- Polemic: Providing a good venue for debate.
- Current: Offering data that is new.
- Cutting-edge: Exploring important new strategies that help set management agendas in the Canadian health services sector.

Healthcare Quarterly would be of benefit to decision and policy makers in governments, regions, networks, hospitals and facilities across Canada and internationally. The journal recognizes that participants in the healthcare system also include educators, consultants and suppliers.
