Healthcare Reimbursement Monitor

Description: Now you can have a monthly newsletter delivered right to your desktop that gives you the full breadth of coverage of news and information that relates to how your organization gets paid.

You'll get the latest details of actions taken or proposed in Washington concerning changes to the BBA; updates on Medicaid and Medicare budget and reimbursement issues; and reimbursement news for hospital operations executives as well as top financial management. Plus you'll get the collective thinking of some of the nation's leading healthcare reimbursement specialists and consulting firms; what they are suggesting, strategies, actions you can take, news of survey results, special studies and reports.

Healthcare Reimbursement Monitor is independent so you'll get unbiased reporting. Let's face it, the healthcare associations only give you what is in their best interests, but not necessarily in your organization's best interest.

Subscribe now to Healthcare Reimbursement Monitor and you'll be able to get the information you're looking for when you need it. You'll get a monthly 8-10 page reimbursement briefing that covers the gamut -- hospital, home healthcare, long-term care, hospice, ambulatory care, physician payment. Plus as events unfold, you'll receive e-mailed special news alerts, supplements, management clinics, what other organizations are doing.

Here's a sample of the broad range of coverage you'll receive in Healthcare Reimbursement Monitor:

- News and insight about CMS fiscal year payment increases
- Why payer denials remain a major problem for providers
- The top 10 claims testing problems
- Regular updates on the emerging pay for performance programs
- How Health Savings Accounts are fostering the growth of consumer-driven health plans
- News about the CMS $1 Billion reimbursement program for hospitals and emergency services
- Latest update on Home Health Medicare payment rate increases
- How to avoid the causes of MCO claim denials
- How to optimize your organization's cash flow by effective denials management
- The 134 physician groups that are sharing $56.9 million in quality incentive awards
- Medicare nursing home payment rate increases
- Payer-provider issues in light of antitrust laws
- Details about the new program that will reimburse physicians for plan member web visits
- Managing your organizations payer relationships under the shadow of the FTC
- The CMS increase for outpatient services
- Why 19,000 doctors hit Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan with a fee-related lawsuit
- Blending payment programs to maximize providers reimbursement

What sets Healthcare Reimbursement Monitor apart and makes it so useful to you is that your subscription is delivered electronically to your desktop each month in your choice of format. In addition, your electronic reimbursement information service opens up our archive of past articles related to reimbursement that you are free to search anytime you want when you are looking for a piece of information.

All of this for one full year for less than what some leading consulting firms charge for one hour of their services.

Fair and adequate reimbursement for your organization is everyone's job. Healthcare Reimbursement Monitor can help simply by making your search for information easier and more immediate.
